

A COURSE FOR FAMILY PHYSICIANS TO ADVANCE TEACHING SKILLS

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A PRECEPTOR

Earn up to 17.5
Mainpro+ credits!

- A novel program developed by family physicians, for family physicians
- Structured around teaching in a community-based office
- Collaborates with Divisions of Family Practice

For more information, visit dayinthepreceptorlife.med.ubc.ca or email fac.dev@ubc.ca

WHAT PARTICIPANTS ARE SAYING

"I would say the coolest/most relevant piece of family medicine orientation I have seen."

"Thanks so much. I feel inspired to pass the torch."

"We were able to discuss previous experiences we've had trying to build the educational alliance."

A Day in the Life of a Preceptor

A Course for Family Physicians to Advance Teaching Skills

Curriculum Topic

Methods of Learning

September

June

1

Preparing for Teaching

Virtual Meeting or Video

Self-Paced E-Learning

Small Group Case-Based Learning

2

Learning Relationships

3

Teaching Skills (In Office)

4

Teaching Skills (Virtual)

5

Feedback Assessment Observation

Small Group Case-Based Learning meetings can be combined, e.g., Topics 1 & 2 and 3 & 4